Tingle

Like a fizzing lolly, the fruity flavours of the new Tingle series from design studio, Luxxbox, will be sure to tickle your taste buds. The fun mix and match colours of the interior/exterior low seating and table series offers great flexibility to complement any office, home or café. The Tingle is made of 100% recyclable low density polyethylene and is available with either a soft polyurethane pad insert* or a hard Tingle top* for added height and contrast. A removable Compact Laminate* or polypropylene table top* can also be added so you have somewhere to put your coffee. The fruity range is solid but light and made to withstand mother natures various moods. Best of all, the small footprint and stacking ability means storage is no problem. So go ahead, mix and match and discover your favourite fruity flavours.
